

Morning Ritual

- After my good morning message, I kiss an object of your choosing while kneeling on my bed and tell you that I kissed the object and how it felt. I then thank you for allowing me to serve you.
- This will help me stay grounded and devoted from the beginning of my day.
- The object I kiss is supposed to represent your feet as I can not kiss your feet online, so an object can symbolize them.
- You will need to decide the object that symbolises your feet and decide how many kisses I need to give it each morning while I kneel

Evening Ritual

- In the evening, 5pm my time I will tell you everything I have done to be productive that day. You will decide if I have been productive enough to your standards, or if I need to be punished for being lazy, or any feedback you have for me.
- This will help me stay focused while serving you and also be productive in my own life
- You will need to decide If I was lazy that day and punish or yell at me, give me feedback on anything you want better, or praise me if I met your standards.

Night Ritual

- Similar to the morning ritual, after my good night message, I will kiss the object that represents your feet while I kneel on my bed. I will then affirm my devotion and tell you about how I felt that day and how I will be better and more devoted to you. Then I will sleep.
- This will help me end the day in submission to you and will keep me in my place.
- You will need to decide on the object I kiss that symbolizes your feet and how many kisses I should give that object while I kneel

Permission Ritual

- I ask you for permission for eating, using the washroom, leaving the house, showering, and spending money. I wait 5 minutes for your response and if you do not respond I will assume you say yes and do it. You can correct me later if you did not want me to do something like use the washroom or spend money.
- This will help me associate my brain with asking you for permission. It will condition my actions and thoughts to always include you.
- You will need to decide yes or no based on what you want for me.

Coming Home Ritual

- Since I can't be kneeling in front of the door online, I will make this ritual for everytime you enter the chat. How this will work is I will stop everything I am doing and tell you that I am ready to serve you and affirm my submission. Then the chat will go on normally.
- This will help me stay devoted to you and keep me knowing my place
- You don't need to do anything for this ritual, only approve if you want it or not.

Feeling Horny Ritual:

- Every time I am horny, I will tell you that I am horny and affirm that my dick belongs to you. I will then tell you the reason I am horny and what I was thinking about
- This will help me associate feeling pleasure with you. My pleasure belongs to you afterall.
- You don't need to do anything on this, just approve if you want it or not.

Humiliation Ritual

- I write on my body with a washable marker. I write down humiliating things like "I am Zee's slut" or "Zee's property." I am only allowed to write one thing per day unless you want me to write more. This can be done anytime within the day
- This will help me knowing my place and will make me feel owned
- You will need to approve how many humiliating things I am allowed to write per day on my body

Maintenance Punishment Ritual:

- You will physically punish me weekly (on the weekend) regardless of my behaviour, this can be something like slaps, spansks, CBT, any painful activity
- This is important for me to be able to fear you punishments and help me know my place
- You will need to decide which punishment you want and how you want to torture me

Notes:

- These rituals are excluding working hours for me as I can not perform some rituals at work. But I will do the best I can during work If I am able to
- These rituals can change based on what you want at anytime
- These rituals will carry the consequence of punishment if I do not perform them
